

PARAGON CASINO RESORT SPORTS BETTING HOUSE RULES (1 of 6)

(A) Definitions

- (1) Unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions and the definitions set forth are applicable throughout this Part:
- (a) "Action" means any wager or bet.
  - (b) "Athletics" means the sport of competing in track and field events, including running races and various competitions in jumping and throwing.
  - (c) "Boost/Enhanced Bets" means a specified bet offered at a better price than normal.
  - (d) "Bowls" means a sport in which the objective is to roll biased balls so that they stop close to a smaller ball.
  - (e) "Cancelled Wager" means a wager that has been cancelled by the Sports Betting Operation due to any issue with an event that prevents its completion.
  - (f) "Cash Equivalents" means the monetary value that a gaming operation may assign to a document, financial instrument, or anything else of representative value other than cash. A cash equivalent includes, but is not limited to, tokens, chips, coupons, vouchers, payout slips and tickets, and other items to which a gaming operation has assigned an exchange value.
  - (g) "Commission" means the Tunica-Biloxi Tribal Gaming Commission.
  - (h) "Cover" means a favorite winning by enough to beat the point spread or an underdog losing by less than the point spread.
  - (i) "Dead Heat" means where two or more selections are joint winners in an event. If a dead heat between two selections is declared on any event, half the bet is applied to the selection of full odds and the other half is lost. If more than two dead heats are declared, the bet is proportioned accordingly per the Dead Heat rule.
  - (j) "Dog" means the team or athlete perceived to be the least likely to win, also known as the Underdog.
  - (k) "Exchange wagers" means a form of wagering in which two or more persons place identically opposing wagers in a given market, allowing guests to wager on both winning and non-winning outcomes in the same event.
  - (l) "Favorite" means the team or athlete favored to win.
  - (m) "Free bet" means a bet made by Guests using non-cashable vouchers, coupons, electronic credits or electronic promotions provided by Sports betting operation.
  - (n) "Futures" mean a wager placed in advance of an event taking place such as what team will win the championship. Odds on these events may, or may not, be displayed on the betting board, but may be available on the shelf rack.
  - (o) "GAA" means Gaelic Athletic Association.
  - (p) "Grand Salami" means a bet on the cumulative total for all scores of every team, such as total runs in baseball, in every game on the same day within a particular league.
  - (q) "Handicap" means a form of sports betting used to even the contest when there is a perceived strength differential between two opponents.
    - (r) "In Play Wagers" means wagering on a game while it is happening.
    - (s) "Line" means current odds or point spread on a game.
    - (t) "Listed Pitchers" means a baseball wager that is based on both pitchers scheduled to start a game. Should either pitcher listed on a bet not start the game, wager is deemed no action and money will be refunded.
  - (u) "Listed Pitchers Versus Opposing Team" means a baseball wager that is based on one listed pitcher from either team scheduled to start a game. In the event that the specified listed pitcher does not start, there is no wager and money will be refunded. The wager may be subject to an odds adjustment should there be a change in the other specified pitcher (from that originally listed). It can be specified as either a listed pitcher from the team you wish to wager upon or you may wager on a team against the opposing team's listed pitcher.
  - (v) "Money Line" means the odds of a team winning the game outright without the use of the point spread. The money line is represented by numbers such as -150 for the favorite and +140 for the underdog. Both are in reference to $100, where for the favorite, a $150 bet wins $100 (total payout of $250) and the underdog, a $100 bet wins $140 (total payout of $240).
  - (w) "No Action" means a wager that is cancelled/void and original bet is refunded.
  - (x) "Over" means a wager that the combined total final score from both teams of a game will be more than a specified amount. Overtime is counted within the betting total unless otherwise stated.
  - (y) "Parlay" means combining two or more bets (also called legs) on one ticket. To win a parlay, all wagers must be won, and the entire bet is lost if one leg loses. However, if one leg pushes, it is simply removed from the Parlay and a 3 leg parlay will become a 2 leg parlay.
  - (z) "Pennant" means a flag flown to show support for a particular athletic team.
  - (aa) "Point Spread" means the required margin of points by which a team must win or lose by less than. The favorite is indicated by a minus sign along with the point spread (e.g. Minnesota -7). The opposite applies to the underdog where they are indicated by a plus sign along with the point spread (Chicago +7). Odds are bet 11 to win 10 (-110) unless stated otherwise. In the above example, if Minnesota wins by more than 7 points or if Chicago loses by less than 7 points or wins outright, that respective team will "cover the spread". If Minnesota wins by 7 exactly, the bet is a "push" and bets on both teams are refunded.
  - (bb) "Promotion" means a soccer league format that combines the sport's first, second, third (and so on) divisions into one, fluid ladder, allowing teams from any division to move up to a higher division. Teams finishing at the top of the second division earn "promotion" to the first division.
  - (cc) "Proposition (Prop) bet" means a bet regarding the occurrence or non-occurrence of a certain outcome during an event that does not directly reflect the event's final outcome.
  - (dd) "Puck Line" means the point spread for hockey. The favorite is indicated by a minus (-) and the underdog by a plus (+). At the end of the game, the relevant spread is added to or subtracted from the selected team's score to determine the puck line result.
  - (ee) "Push" means the point spread is met exactly which means the betting result is a tie and refunds are issued to favorites and underdogs.
  - (ff) "Relegation" works by taking the lowest-ranked teams in a league at the end of a season and transferring them down to a lower ranked league. These teams will then compete in a lower league for the following season.
  - (gg) "Run Line" means the point spread for baseball. The favorite is indicated by a minus (-) and the underdog by a plus (+). At the end of the game, the relevant spread is added to or subtracted from the selected team's score to determine the run line result.
  - (hh) "Scorecasts" means selecting the winning team and a player to score first.
  - (ii) "Self-service betting device (kiosk)" means an automated device used by Guests to make wagers on sporting events; the kiosk may also be used to obtain betting information, process Sports betting vouchers and betting tickets, and any other automated functions approved by the Commission. All self-service betting devices must be located in an approved area.
  - (jj) "Sports betting Operator" means an entity managing a sports betting operation in which customer's place bets in person at a designated physical location. A sports betting operator may take authorized sports bets within the designated sports betting wagering area during agreed upon operating hours.
  - (kk) "Sports betting operation" means a wagering operation in which bets are placed on sports events through any system or method of betting, including single-game bets, teaser bets, parlays, over-under, money line, pools, exchange wagering, in-game betting, in-play bets, proposition bets other than those relating to collegiate sports events, or straight bets.
  - (ll) "Sports betting system" means all equipment and software used in conjunction with the sports betting operation, including but not limited to: a) sports betting components, including all hardware, software and associated equipment that comprise the sports betting platform for the purpose of retail sports betting and online/mobile sports betting; b) self-service sports betting kiosks; and, c) ticket voucher redemption devices.
  - (mm) "Sports betting wagering area" means an area(s), as designated by the casino and approved by the Commission, in which sports betting is conducted by the sports betting operator.
  - (nn) "Sports bet" means any individual or team sport, athletic contest, or athletic event not prohibited by the Commission, including all professional electronic sports and competitive video game events that are not sponsored by high schools, and do not include high school teams, and do not include a majority of participants that are under the age of 18 years.
  - (oo) "Sports bet" means the business of accepting approved bets by a sports betting operator on any sports event by any approved system or method of betting.
  - (pp) "Sports betting ticket" means a printed record issued or an electronic record maintained by the Sports betting system that evidences a sports wager.
  - (qq) "Sports betting voucher" means a printed record issued by a Sports betting system that may be used to fund a sports wager.
  - (rr) "Straight Bet" means a wager on one individual single event determined by a point spread, money line or total.
  - (ss) "Teasers" mean a type of football or basketball wager that gives the ability to adjust the point spread up or down a specified number of points in the player's favor on more than one game in exchange for a lower payout.
  - (tt) "Total (Over/Under)" means to wager the combined total final score from both teams of a game will be more than (over) or less than (under) a specified amount. This is an independent wager and is not associated with a point spread. Overtime is counted within the betting total unless otherwise indicated.
  - (uu) "Under" means a wager that the combined total final score from both teams of a game will be under than a specified amount. Overtime is counted within the betting total.
  - (vv) "Underdog" means the team or athlete perceived to be the least likely to win.
  - (ww) "Voided wager" means a wager voided by a Sports betting operation pursuant to the Sports betting operation's procedures.
  - (xx) "Wager" means the amount of money of your bet.
  - (yy) "Win Casts" means selecting the winning team and a player to score at any time during the match.
  - (zz) "Winter Sports" means sports performed on snow or ice, such as skiing and ice skating.

- (16) Sports Betting Operations settles all markets relating to an event in accordance with the official ruling of the relevant governing body at the end of the event.
- (17) When ambiguity or uncertainty exists around any result, the Sports Betting Operations reserves the right to suspend settlement of any market until any doubt can be removed to the reasonable satisfaction of the company subject to approval.
  - (a) Sports Betting Operations reserves the right to cancel any market if the uncertainty regarding settlement cannot be resolved.
  - (b) [Reserved]
- (18) Pay-outs in excess of $10,000 could be delayed until the next banking day and may be processed by electronic bank transfer or by check.
- (19) Sports Betting Operations reserves the right, at its own discretion subject to approval of the Commission, to correct or cancel any obvious errors, including but not limited to the following conditions:
  - (a) In the case of pricing errors where it is obvious that the price offered is materially different from the consensus market, and it is abundantly clear that the price is incorrect. In these instances, bets will be settled at the correct price of the time of placement which will be established from pricing logs and direct comparison to competitors in the market.
  - (b) In the case of an event being offered completely in error. In these instances, Sports Betting Operations may void any related events in its sole discretion and will provide justification as to how it determined the event should not have been offered.
  - (c) When an incorrect handicap is displayed as a result of a technical or manual inputting error. In these instances, Sports Betting Operations reserves the right to settle any affected bets at corrected odds to reflect those odds that would have been available when the handicap line was set.
  - (d) If a bet is accepted in error on an event or outcome for which no Sports Betting Operations prices are available. In these instances, the bet will be void and the stakes returned.
  - (e) In the case where the Sports Betting Operations and/or betting systems have encountered system or technical issues or there is a settlement error. In these instances, issues will be addressed individually, and Sports Betting Operations reserves the right to resolve them at its sole discretion.
  - (f) Any winnings resulting from an error shall be deemed invalid and will be reversed subject to approval.
  - (g) Any results, clocks, or scores displayed at the retail Sports Betting Operation or on the site are for guidance purposes only. While Sports Betting Operations makes every effort to ensure that this information is accurate, it does not accept liability if the information be shown incorrectly.
- (20) Guest may contact a sports betting operations supervisor or above for questions or complaints.
- (21) Disputes
  - (a) In a patron dispute, the Sports Betting Operation must notify the disputing patron that he has a right to have a Tunica-Biloxi Tribal Gaming Commission Agent present when the dispute is discussed or resolved.
  - (b) Whenever the Sports Betting Operation refuses payment of alleged winnings to a guest and the Sports Betting Operation and the guest are unable to resolve the dispute to the guest satisfaction and the dispute involves at least $250.00, the Sports Betting Operation must immediately notify the Commission to conduct an investigation.

(C) Cancellations, Postponements

- (1) Some markets have sports specific rules regarding cancellations and postponements which are reflected below, but in the absence of these rules, the following applies:
  - (a) If the event is not completed within 24 hours after the originally scheduled completion date, all bets on markets for the event will be cancelled, except for bets on any markets for that event that have already been determined, and,
  - (b) If the scheduled duration or event conditions change after a wager is placed but prior to the start of the event, all bets will be cancelled.
- (2) [Reserved]

(D) Change of Venue

- (1) Some markets have sports specific rules regarding changes of venue which are reflected below, but in the absence of these rules, the following applies in the case of a change of venue:
  - (a) In relation to all team sports, if the scheduled venue is changed after a wager is placed all bets will be cancelled only if the new venue is a home ground of the original away team (all bets will be cancelled for international matches if there is a change in country of the venue);
  - (b) In all events other than team sports if the scheduled venue is changed all bets will stand; and,
  - (c) If there is a change in the type of surface (for example a football game changes from grass to a synthetic surface) all bets will stand.
- (2) [Reserved]

(E) In-Play Wagers

- (1) In play wagering is betting on event while it is happening.
- (2) If a market is not scheduled or intended to be turned in-play after the listed start time, but Sports Betting Operations fails to suspend the market, all bets after the originally scheduled start time will be cancelled.
- (3) If Sports Betting Operations accepts a wager on a market where the outcome has already been determined that bet shall be deemed cancelled.

(F) Dead Heats

- (1) Unless stated otherwise, a Dead Heat Rule applies to bets on a market where two or more selections are joint winners.
- (2) If a dead heat between two selections is declared on any event, half the bet is applied to the selection of full odds and the other half is lost.
- (3) If more than two dead heats are declared, the bet is proportioned accordingly.

(G) Parlay Betting

- (1) A parlay is a single sports wager that involves two or more individual wager outcomes also known as legs.
- (2) Parlay odds are set at the point the bet is placed.
- (3) In order to win a parlay bet, all legs of the parlay must be won.
- (4) If any leg is a push, a non-runner, or cancelled for any reason, all bets on that leg will be void and the parlay bet shall be adjusted accordingly. For example, if three legs are bet and one leg is cancelled, that bet will become a double. If two legs are bet and one leg is cancelled, the single bet will stand.
- (5) If any constituent selection in multiple/parlay leg is a no action/no runner all bets on that leg will be void. Parlays combining different selections within the same event are not accepted when there are related contingencies.

PARAGON CASINO RESORT SPORTS BETTING HOUSE RULES (2 of 6)

- (6) If a bet containing outcomes with related contingencies is taken in error, Sports Betting Operations may settle the individual bet combinations which contain two or more the related contingency selections as constituent bets, as singles/straight bets.
- (H) Futures
- (1) For all futures wagers, in the circumstance of a team or player name change all bets are still deemed to be action.
  - (2) In the occurrence of a team relocation, all existing futures bets are still deemed action.
  - (3) In the case of an event changing its name, all existing futures bets on said event are deemed to be action.
- (I) Teasers
- (1) A teaser bet is similar to a parlay bet. Like a parlay bet each event selected for a teaser must win in order for the bettor to win the bet.
  - (2) Teasers allow the bettor to alter the point spreads and over/under totals depending on the sport and teaser offered.
- (J) Wagering Ties
- (1) A wagering tie, also called a push, will be handled as follows:
    - (a) Straight bets – original bet shall be refunded
    - (b) Parlays and teasers – number of legs shall be reduced by the number of ties
  - (2) [Reserved]
- (K) Cash Out Betting
- (1) Cash out betting gives guests more control over their wagers and allows them the ability to settle their wager early at current value. Sports Betting Operations may offer cash out betting to its online guests.
  - (2) This option is offered solely at Sports Betting Operations discretion and may not be available on all wagers.
  - (3) If offered, guests can visit the active bets area of their account and see the current price available on their wager to cash out.
  - (4) Once the guest selects the cash out option, the bet will settle at that amount and the funds will appear in the guest's account.
  - (5) The settlement of the bet at that point is final.
  - (6) Cash out is not available on free bets.
- (L) Football
- (1) General Rules
    - (a) The maximum pay-out which applies to NFL football, including Pre-Season is $1,000,000 for Moneyline, Total Points, Handicap, and Tournament/Competition Winner, $50,000 is the max payout for all other markets.

    - (b) Overtime counts for settlement purposes.
  - (3) Point Spread
    - (a) A point spread is a bet on a team to win the game with the handicaps applied. At the end of the relevant period of play, the relevant handicap is added to, or subtracted from the selected team's score to determine the point spread result.
    - (b) When scores are tied after accounting for any handicap the bet will be deemed a push.
  - (4) Game Totals
    - (a) The result is the combined total points for both teams at the end of the relevant period of play.
    - (b) When the combined scores of both teams equal the game total line exactly, it will be deemed a push.
  - (5) Quarter/1st Half Bets
    - (a) Bets may be placed on specific quarters or halves.
    - (b) The relevant quarter or half must be completed for bets to be valid.
    - (c) The 4th quarter does not include overtime.
  - (6) 2nd Half Bets
    - (a) The 2nd half must be completed in full to be valid.
    - (b) Overtime is included in 2nd half bets.
  - (7) Point Spread/Total Points In-Play
    - (a) Offered on select games with point spread lines available and updated while the game is in-play.
    - (b) The spread or total quoted is for the entire game including any overtime.
    - (c) Push rules apply except where the spread in-play contains a tie option.
  - (8) Game Propositions (aka prop bets)
    - (a) The period of play necessary for bets to be valid may vary from trip to prop. Guests are advised to check with guest service if they are unsure of the specific requirements for a prop bet.
    - (b) Team to score first/last – Bets will be void if no team scores.
    - (c) Double result – Based on predicting the result of the game at half time and the result of the game at the end of the 2nd half. Overtime does not count.
    - (d) Highest scoring quarter – At least 60 minutes of game play must elapse for bets to be valid. Overtime does not count. Dead Heat Rules apply.
    - (e) First scoring play – Bets will be void if no team scores.
    - (f) Team totals – At least 55 minutes of game play must elapse for bet to be valid, unless a team's total has already gone over the number quoted.
    - (g) Time of first score – At least 55 minutes of game play must elapse for bets to be valid unless a team has already scored.
    - (h) Half with most points – Overtime does not count.
    - (i) The following additional game props will require at least 55 minutes of game play for bets to be valid and include overtime, if played (regardless of whether or not the prop has gone over or under the number quoted before 55 minutes has been played):
      - (i) Total plays;
      - (ii) Total offensive yards;
      - (iii) Total first downs;
      - (iv) Total rushing yards;
      - (v) Total rushing attempts;
      - (vi) Total passing yards;
      - (vii) Total pass attempts;
      - (viii) Total pass completions;
      - (ix) Total sacks;
      - (x) Total turnovers;
      - (xi) Total penalties;
      - (xii) Total punts;
      - (xiii) Total field goals made;
      - (xiv) Team to score longest touchdown; and
      - (xv) Team to score longest field goal
  - (9) Player Props/Match-ups/Performances
    - (a) All player props/match-ups/performance bets are accepted as single bets only, unless stated otherwise.
    - (b) These bets are valid if that player plays in at least one down. Handicaps may be used and are applied to each player's actual performance to determine the result. Push rules will apply where the performance is exactly on the line.
    - (c) First touchdown scorer – Name of the scorer of the first touchdown in the game or if no touchdown will be scored. Players must be active (as per the official Pro Football Game Book) for bets to be valid.
  - (10) Season Props
    - (a) All season props are based on the regular season games only. All regular season games must be played for the bet to be valid.
    - (b) On any season player prop market, players must play at least one snap for bets to have action.
    - (c) Season props can cover a wide range of results and occurrences over the length of the season, e.g. total regular season wins per team, total regular season rushing yards, which quarterback will throw for most yards, etc.
    - (d) Players' statistics stand, irrespective of any trades during the regular season.
  - (11) Futures
    - (a) Pro football regular season wins and match-ups are based on teams completing all regular season games.
    - (b) Conference winners are determined by the teams progressing to the pro football championship game.
    - (c) Pro football divisional winners are determined by games won during the regular season (League tie break rules apply) based on teams completing all regular season games
    - (d) Championship wagers are determined by the team that wins the referenced league or championship.
- (M) Baseball
- (1) General Rules
    - (a) The maximum pay-out for MLB regular season is $200,000 for Moneyline, Total Runs, Handicap and Tournament/Competition Winner, $50,000 is the maximum pay-out for all other markets.
    - (b) The maximum pay-out for MLB pre-season is $100,000 for Moneyline, Total Runs, Handicap and Tournament/Competition Winner, $25,000 is the maximum pay-out for all other markets.
    - (c) The maximum pay-out for NCAA baseball is $100,000 for Moneyline, Total Runs, Handicap and Tournament/Competition Winner, $25,000 is the maximum pay-out for all other markets.
  - (2) For all non MLB or NCAA baseball, the maximum pay-out for all markets is $25,000.
  - (3) Baseball (Pro, College, all others) – Winners and losers of games are official after 5 innings (4 ½ innings if home team is ahead) of play.
  - (4) When wagering on total runs, proposition bets or run lines, the game must go 9 innings (8 ½ innings if the home team is ahead) to have action.
  - (5) When wagering on total runs, proposition bets or run lines for doubleheader games, the game must go 7 innings (6 ½ innings if the home team is ahead) to have action.
  - (6) Thereafter, if a game is called or suspended, the final score is determined after the last full inning unless the home team scores to tie or take the lead in the bottom half of the inning, in which case the score is determined by the score of the time the game is called.
  - (7) For baseball totals and run lines, if pitchers are listed, listed pitchers must start for betting action.
  - (8) Baseball wagers are accepted in the following manner:
    - (i) Action – Team against team, regardless of the starting pitcher.
    - (ii) One Specified Pitcher – A wager on or against one specified pitcher, regardless of the other starting pitcher. Specified pitcher must start, or wager is deemed 'No Action'.
    - (iii) Both Specified Pitchers – A wager that specifies both starting pitchers. Any variation constitutes 'No Action'.

- [Reserved]
- (2) Futures
- Any bets placed prior to the Monday immediately before the tournament start will be deemed action.
  - If the player subsequently does not take part all bets on that player will be deemed losers.
- (3) Abandoned / Postponed / Shortened Tournaments
- If a golf tournament is abandoned or shortened from the advertised number of holes, then the trophy presentation will determine settlement for the following markets:
    - Outright, Place;
    - Top 10;
    - Matches;
    - Groups;
    - Top Nationalities; and
    - Any other 54/72 hole markets provided the following conditions have been met:
  - 36 Holes of any Professional Golfers' Association (PGA) Tour / European Tour / Champions Tour / Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour event must have been completed for bets to be valid.
  - For any event played over 2 or more courses then all players must have completed an equal number of holes on each course and at least 36 holes overall.
  - If no further play takes place after a bet is placed, then that bet will be deemed cancelled.
  - Any player will stand on a postponed tournament until the tournament is completed (subject to the above conditions).
- (4) Outright Betting
- No action no bet, bets will be refunded.
  - Once a player tees off that player is deemed to have taken part in the tournament and is deemed a loser if they withdraw or are disqualified.
  - Playoffs will determine winning bets.
  - If a bet is placed and there is no further play, or further play does not count for the official result, those bets will be cancelled.
- (5) Tournament Match Betting (54 or 72 Holes)
- In the event of a tie the bet will be refunded unless draw was an offered selection.
  - Playoffs do not count and if two players shoot the same tournament score then the tie will be declared the winner if it was an offered selection. Otherwise the bet is a push.
  - If one player misses the cut, then the other player is deemed to have won.
  - If both players miss the cut, then the player to shoot the lowest pre-cut score will be the winner.
  - If a player is disqualified/withdraws prior to the cut or after both players have made the cut, then they are deemed to have lost.
  - If a player is disqualified/ withdraws after making the cut but the opponent has already missed the cut, then the player to make the cut is the winner.
  - If a tournament is abandoned for any reason then bets will stand provided an official result is announced, and the number of holes stipulated above being completed. Bets placed at a time after which no further play takes place will be deemed cancelled and returned.
- (6) Groups (Inc. Top Nationalities etc.)
- If applicable a playoff determines the winner. Otherwise, the Dead Heat rule may apply.
  - The player shooting the lowest score in that group is deemed to be the winner.
  - If a player misses the cut, then that selection is deemed a loser.
  - If all players in a particular group miss the cut the player shooting the lowest score prior to the cut is deemed to be the winner. Any player that is disqualified/withdraws is deemed a loser.
- (7) Place Betting/Top 4/Top 5/Top 10 and Top 20 Betting
- See Outright Betting rules. Dead Heat Rules Apply.
  - If the stipulation Ties Included is added, then this means that dead heat rules do not apply on that particular market.

- See Outright Betting.
  - Dead Heat rules apply.
- (9) 2 Ball and 3 Ball Betting (including Mythical 2 Balls and 3 Balls)
- The player that records the lowest score over 18 holes will be the winner.
  - A tie is offered in 2 Ball betting and therefore in the event of a tie both players will be losers.
  - If a 3 ball results in a tie, then Dead Heat rules apply.
  - A player is deemed a runner once they have teed off. If a player withdraws prior to teeing off, then the 2 Ball or 3 Ball will be deemed cancelled.
  - In Tie No Bet markets bets will be void in the event of a Tie.
  - If a 2 Ball or 3 Ball is rearranged all bets will stand as per the original groupings.
- (10) Make / Miss the Cut
- Players disqualified or who withdraw prior to the cut are deemed to have missed the cut.
  - Made Out/Did Not Finish (MDF) (modified cut rules on the PGA Tour) will be settled as making the cut.
  - If a tournament is shortened and there is no cut, all bets will be cancelled.
- (11) Six-shooters
- The player who shoots the lowest score of the round is deemed the winner.
  - Dead Heat rules apply.
  - Any player who is disqualified/withdraws is deemed a loser.
- (12) Individual Players Score
- Prices may be offered on a player's score during a nominated round. If the round in question is not completed, all bets will be cancelled.
  - [Reserved]
- (13) Next Hole Winner - 2 Balls
- The player who scores the lowest score on the hole is the winner.
  - Prices are offered for each player and a tie; therefore, if the final scores are level all bets on either player are settled as losers.
  - If the players do not tee off from the correct hole, all bets are void.
- (14) Next Hole Winner - 3 Balls
- The player who scores the lowest score on the hole is the winner. Dead Heat rules apply.
  - [Reserved]
- (15) Next Hole/Selected Player's Score Total
- Prices are offered on a named player to score either under, over or exactly a number of shots. If the hole is not completed, all bets will be void.
  - [Reserved]
- (U) Motor Sports
- (1) General Rules
- The maximum pay-out for race winner is $100,000; $25,000 is the maximum pay-out for all other markets.
  - All results are settled on the official classification at the time of the podium presentation by the sanctioning body regardless of the number of laps completed.
  - Any altered results due to post race inspection or post-race penalties are not recognized for settlement purposes.
- (2) Outright Team/Driver Championship Betting
- All bets stand whether the driver or team competes or not.
  - Bets will be determined by the number of points accumulated immediately following the podium presentation of the final race of the season and will not be affected by subsequent inquiries.
- (3) Individual Race Betting
- All bets stand whether or not the driver or team competes in the race.
  - In the event of a disqualification, the podium presentation will count as the weigh-in and determine the settlement of bets.
  - The start of any motor race is defined as the signal to start the warm-up lap.
- (4) Fastest Qualifier
- Bets settled on the driver who is announced as qualifying on pole immediately following the end of the qualifying session.
  - Any subsequent demotion or disqualification does not affect the result.
- (5) Podium/Points Finish
- Bets settled on the drivers who finish the race in the podium/points positions, with the podium presentation counting as the 'weigh in'.
  - Subsequent inquiries will not affect the result for settlement purposes.
- (6) Fastest Lap
- Bets settled on the driver who is officially declared to have completed the fastest lap of the race.
  - [Reserved]
- (7) Match Betting
- For individual races, the top finisher is deemed the winner. If both drivers fail to complete the race, the one completing the most laps is the winner. If the same number of laps are completed, the bet is deemed a push.
  - For season-long bets, the top points getter is deemed the winner. If drivers are tied on points the bet is deemed a push.
  - For qualifying bets, the driver with the fastest qualifying time is declared the winner. If both drivers fail to qualify, the bet is cancelled. If either driver fails to start a lap in the official race qualifying session, then all qualifying match bets are cancelled.
- (8) Dual Forecast
- Prices are quoted for drivers to finish first and second in a Grand Prix in any order.
  - Result is based on the podium presentation and any subsequent amendments do not count.
  - If a driver does not start the warm-up lap, all bets containing that selection are cancelled.
- (9) Pole Position
- Pole position applies to position at the end of qualifying practice.
  - If qualifying practice does not take place all bets on pole position are cancelled.

  - (b) [Reserved]
- (2) First Class/Test Cricket
  - (a) Pre-match Test Match Markets
    - (i) If any match is abandoned due to outside interference, all bets will be deemed cancelled, except for any in-play markets that have already been completed.
    - (ii) All bets will be settled on the official result, as long as one ball has been bowled.
    - (iii) In the event of a tie, Dead Heat rules will apply.
  - (b) Top Run Scorer/Wicket Taker
    - (i) Any Top Run Scorer/Wicket Taker bets placed on any player(s) not in the starting eleven will be void
    - (ii) Top Bat/Man/Wicket Taker bets placed on any player(s) that are in the starting eleven, but do not bat or bowl, will be settled as losers.
    - (iii) In Test matches affected by weather, a minimum of 50 overs must be bowled, unless the team is all out, otherwise all Top Run Scorer/Wicket Taker bets will be deemed cancelled.
    - (iv) Unless otherwise stated, all Top Run Scorer/Wicket Taker bets will only be settled on the First Innings scores.
  - (c) First Innings Lead
    - (i) Bets will only stand if both teams have completed their first innings, having been bowled out or in the event of a declaration.
    - (ii) [Reserved]
  - (d) Batsman Match Bets
    - (i) All Batsman match bets will stand providing both players are in the starting eleven and face at least one ball unless run out or given out obstructing the field.
    - (ii) All Batsman match bets are valid for the first innings only, unless otherwise stated.
  - (e) Wicket Taker Match Bets
    - (i) All Wicket Taker match bets will stand providing both players are in the starting eleven and bowl at least one ball.
    - (ii) All Wicket Taker match bets are valid for the first innings only, unless otherwise stated.
  - (f) Highest Opening Partnership
    - (i) Bets will stand as long as both opening partnerships are completed or a result has been determined.
    - (ii) [Reserved]
  - (g) Series Betting
    - (i) All correct score series bets will be subject to the following rule if the correct number of Tests are not played. For example: England v South Africa – 5 match series. South Africa is leading 4-0 and the last match is abandoned. Only customers who have backed South Africa to win the series 5-0 or 4-1 are potential winners - all other bets are losers.
    - (ii) Series bets will be settled in accordance with the official result.
    - (iii) Player Total Runs Markets - all Batsman must play at least one Test match for bets to stand.
    - (iv) Top Series Run Scorer/Wicket Taker – as long as players quoted play at least one match all bets will stand.
  - (h) In-play Test Match Markets - Innings Runs
    - (i) A minimum of 50 overs must be bowled, for bets to stand, unless a team is all out.
    - (ii) Session Runs - each day's play is divided into the following three 'Sessions' as described below:
      - (a) Session 1 – from the start of the day until lunch.
      - (b) Session 2 – from lunch until tea.
      - (c) Session 3 – from tea until close of play.
    - (iii) As long as a minimum of 20 overs are bowled in a stated session, the result shall be settled on the accumulative score of one or more innings within that session. In the event of 20 overs not being completed, all bets will be settled as void. An example of this can be found below:
      - (a) At start of play – England 150 for 7. During the first session England are bowled out for 200, Australia bat and at lunch are 50 for 1. The markets would therefore be settled as Session runs = 100.
      - (b) [Reserved]
    - (iv) If the match is shortened by the weather, bets will be governed by the official competition rules. However, should there be no further play (defined as one ball being bowled) after a bet is placed all bets are void. Similarly, if a match is abandoned for reasons other than weather all bets will be void.
  - (i) Pre-match County Championship Markets
    - (i) If any match is abandoned due to outside interference, all will be deemed void.
    - (ii) In the event of a drawn match all bets will be declared void unless a price has been quoted for the draw.
  - (j) In-Play County Championship Markets
    - (i) Any live County Championship matches will be subject to the same rules as Test matches.
    - (ii) [Reserved]
3. Limited Overs Cricket
  - (a) Pre-match One Day Markets
    - (i) In matches affected by adverse weather, bets will be governed by the official competition rules as indicated by the governing body of that particular competition. For example, an English domestic competition is governed by the England and Wales Cricket Board (ECB).
    - (ii) Where no price is quoted for the tie and the official competition rules do not determine a winner, Dead Heat rules apply.
    - (iii) If any match is abandoned due to outside interference, all bets will be deemed void, except for any 'in-play' markets that have already been completed.
  - (b) Top Run Scorer/Wicket Taker
    - (i) Any Top Run Scorer/Wicket Taker bets placed on any player(s) not in the starting eleven will be void.
    - (ii) Top Run Scorer/Wicket Taker bets placed on any player(s) that are in the starting eleven, but do not bat or bowl, will be settled as losers.
    - (iii) In one-day cricket matches affected by weather, a minimum number of overs (as specified below) must be bowled, unless the team is all out, otherwise all Top Bat/Man/Wicket Taker bets will be deemed void.
    - (iv) 50 over ODI/Domestic matches – 20 overs
    - (v) 20 over International/Domestic matches – 6 overs
    - (vi) If two or more players take the same number of wickets, dead heat rules will apply. If no wickets are taken, then the market will be voided.
  - (c) Batsman Match Bets
    - (i) All Batsman match bets will stand providing both players are in the starting eleven and each face at least one ball.
    - (ii) [Reserved]
  - (d) Wicket Taker Match Bets
    - (i) All Bowler match bets will stand providing both players are in the starting eleven and each bowl at least one ball.
    - (ii) [Reserved]
  - (e) In-play Limited Overs Markets - Innings Runs
    - (i) All bets will be declared void if the intervention of rain or any other delay results in less than 90% of the scheduled overs being bowled unless the settlement of the bet is already determined.
    - (ii) For the settlement of this market, any penalty runs for slow play/over rate will not count towards a team's total.
    - (iii) First 15 Overs Runs (in 50 Over Matches)/First 6 Overs Runs (in 20 Over Matches)
    - (iv) All 15/6 overs must be completed or all bets will be declared void, unless settlement of bet(s) is already determined or the team has been bowled out.
  - (f) Highest Opening Partnership
    - (i) Bets will stand as long as both opening partnerships are completed, or a result has been determined.
    - (ii) [Reserved]
  - (g) Total Run Outs
    - (i) If either team's innings in a limited overs match is reduced due to external factors, then bets on this market will be cancelled unless the result was already unequivocally determined before any reduction in overs was announced.
    - (ii) Bets will stand if either innings is shortened due to it reaching its natural conclusion.
  - (h) Team to Score the Most 4s/6s
    - (i) If either team's innings in a limited overs match is reduced due to external factors, then bets on these markets will be cancelled unless the result was already unequivocally determined before any reduction in overs was announced.
    - (ii) Bets will stand if the innings is shortened due to it reaching its natural conclusion.
  - (i) Series Betting - Top Series Run Scorer/Wicket Taker
    - (i) As long as players quoted play at least one match all bets will stand.

- (ii) Where no price is quoted for a drawn series, and the official competition rules do not determine a winner, dead heat rules apply.
  - (iii) Should the designated number of matches not be completed, all bets will be subject to the following rule. For example: England v South Africa – 5 match series. South Africa is leading 4-0 and the last match is abandoned. Only customers who have backed South Africa to win the series 5-0 or 4-1 are potential winners - all other bets are losers.
- (1) Series Betting - Tie/Dead Heat
    - (i) For All markets, where the tie is not quoted, Dead Heat rules apply except where the competition rules provide a winner e.g. Super Over, Bowl off or any other form of progression.
    - (ii) [Reserved]
